Bearing Northeast by Henry Melton

Rule 1: We'll always be Brother and Sister...

A mysterious metal cylinder falling out of the sky was the perfect excuse to take a vacation when sixteen year old Seth Parmer and Biz, his older sister and sometimes 'parent' found their Fresno lives upended by her unexpected layoff. With Seth's twitter buddies following along on his phone, a GPS tracking signal leads them from California across the continent toward a hidden project in the desolate lands in the middle of Labrador. The electric secret they find there will not only forge a new global destiny for the unique town that they discover, but set a new course for their relationship with each other.

Small Towns, Big Ideas is a collection of stand alone YA titles where high school aged heroes of the here and now are confronted with classic science fiction and fantasy themes. Targeted to ages 12 and up, these titles are receiving high ratings from all ages and have proved popular even with people who "don't read that science fiction stuff".

Henry Melton, author of the Darrell Award-winning Emperor Dad and the Eleanor Cameron / Golden Duck winning Lighter Than Air is frequently on the road, taking inspiration from the small towns and scenic vistas he finds everywhere. Having written short science fiction for the magazines and anthologies for years, he is now concentrating on YA science fiction novels.
