Extreme Makeover by Henry Melton

Lightning brought a towering redwood crashing down around her, and something dripped on her skin. After that, high school senior Deena Brooke struggled to make sense of the impossible changes to her body. She was grateful for the interest Luther Jennings had in her puzzling insights and quirky urges, until she discovered that he was hiding a deadly secret of his own. Alien nanobots had invaded her body, an unseen influence that was changing her into something else! And was Luther helping her or dragging her into some criminal scam of his own?

Small Towns, Big Ideas is a collection of stand alone YA titles where high school aged heroes of the here and now are confronted with classic science fiction themes. Targeted to ages 12 and up, these titles are receiving high ratings from all ages and have proved popular even with people who “don’t read that science fiction stuff”.

Henry Melton, author of the Darrell Award-winning Emperor Dad, is frequently on the road, taking inspiration from the small towns and scenic vistas he finds everywhere. Having written short science fiction for the magazines and anthologies for years, and making an impact with classics such as his gaming story Catacomb, he is now concentrating on YA science fiction novels.
